

DIDSBUY PIONEER

VOL. VI

DIDSBUY, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1908.

No. 32

Prices to Make

Business Hum

FOR 10 days we are offering bargains in Men's PAT. OXFORDS, PAT. BUTTON and TAN BLUCHERS.

Men's Tan Bluchers, regular price $5.50, cut price	83.50
" Pat. Button Boots, Kid Top, regular price $5.50, now	3.25
Men's Pat. Oxfords, Button and Bluchers, regular $4.75, cut price	2.65

While the Summer Season is on we are offering

SEASONABLE FOOTWEAR

at Low Prices

COME EARLY AND SECURE A PAIR
SEE WINDOWS.

J. V. BERSCHT

Pork and Beans in tomato sauce 2 lbs. 10 cents this week.

R.C. Hardwater Soap, regular price 10 cents, 4 for 25 cents.

Glycerine Soap, 5 cents, 6 for 25 cents.

Malta Vita, 2 packages for 25 cents.

20 pieces regular 10 cent print, now 3 yards for 25 cents.

30 pieces regular 15 cent print, now 12 1-2 cents, and many other bargains.

BUTTER & EGGS AS CASH.

GEO. PETERS

CHEAP CASH STORE.

Bill Bailey

Has been away and come back again with the joyful news that he has purchased a

CARLOAD OF FRUIT

which will arrive on

MONDAY OR TUESDAY

August 24th or 25th

this car comprises

PLUMS PEACHES PEARS CRAB APPLES and APPLES

All purchasers of fruit will get a SPECIAL PRICE on their SUGAR

Also SPECIAL BARGAINS in DRIED PEACHES at $2.75 PER BOX, 10 lb. boxes of FIGS that are sold at 20c per lb. going at 75c PER BOX.

NORTH RAILWAY STREET.

AROUND THE TOWN

Maley is selling land for $2.55 per acre see him at once, this won't last long.

Don't forget that we are selling goods at almost wholesale prices H. Reimer, Neapolis, Stuart's old store.

Miss Lackner attended the Sunday School Convention at Carstairs on Tuesday and delegate for the Presbyterian church.

N. Weicker will ship hogs on Wednesday, September 2nd. Hogs to be delivered by 11 o'clock of that date or the day before.

Seed time is here. Secure the seed that gives the best results. Only 3 peck per acre needed of the Alberta Red. Get it at the Maple Leaf Flour Mills.

H. Shaw, S. Maley, A. Weicker, P. McIlhargy, W. Durrer, and A. Bruso leave on Sunday for an extended trip into the east country in a prairie schooner.

The business section of Gore Bay, Manitoulin Island, was totally destroyed by fire on Monday last. The loss is between $50,000 and $60,000.

In ladies' blouses, skirts and wrappers our prices cannot be beaten by anyone. Come in and see them. Neapolis General Store.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union, will meet at the Baptist church on August the 27th, from 3 to 4 o'clock. The subject will be "Government Control". Everybody welcome.

The building boom has started in east Didsbury again. McFarlane is going to erect a two story dwelling house in that part of the town and several others are in contemplation.

Land at $2.55 per acre, think of it. You can not buy any other good land less than $10. If you are an actual settler we will sell you 320 acres for $16 dollars, but you will have to hurry as the supply is limited. A. F. Maley.

For the Canadian National Exhibition, to be held at Toronto August 29th, to September 14th, the Canadian Pacific Railway will have in effect special round trip rates. For full information as to rates, dates of sale, limits, etc., apply to the nearest C.P.R. Ticket Agent.

Back in 1886 Campbells Varnish Stains were originated and offered to housekeepers for restraining and refurnishing furniture and interior wood-work. The makers claim, and rightly too, that twenty years experience making varnish stains enables them to make a better article than can be made by those new at the business. Ask for Campbell's Varnish stains. Mr. W. H. Smith & Co. sell it.

N. E. Eby has sold a Nicholais and Sheppard Red River Special threshing outfit to a syndicate east of Didsbury. This is the first one of this make that has ever been brought into this district, but now they have got a start it is likely that others will follow as they are well liked wherever used and are highly guaranteed.

BIRTH.

FERREY—On Sunday, July 26th, 1908, to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Ferrey, a son.

School opens on Monday. J. Davidson was a visitor at Edmonton last week.

The annual fall slaughter of ducks will commence on Monday.

If you are looking for cheap footwear don't forget the Neapolis Store.

C. L. Peterson has been made a commissioner for taking affidavits.

A large quantity of ice for sale cheap. Apply A. A. Perrin, Didsbury.

Mrs. J. McTavish returned from visiting in Manitoba and other points on Wednesday.

A. N. Wetherell, accountant at the Union Bank, returned from his vacation on Friday last.

J. C. Stevens reports that he has finished cutting twelve acres of rye which took 54 lbs. of twine. This will probably yield over 50 bushels to the acre.

In the line of groceries you cannot make a mistake in buying them at Neapolis store because they sell as cheap as any railway town.

Joe Eby, formerly engineer for the Didsbury Mfg. Co., has accepted a position at the Maple Leaf Flour Mills. Allan Spearman will run Weber Bros. threshing engine.

Bill Bailey is expecting a load of fruit in on Monday or Tuesday next. To those purchasing, Bill will give a special price on sugar to sweeten things up. Call on him.

Next Sunday will be children's day in the Evangelical Church. Services for the children will take place at 2 p.m. and in the evening at 7.30. M. Finkbeiner will take for his subject, "Home and Young People".

Rev. and Mrs. S. J. Ferguson will arrive home from Nelson B.C. at the latter end of this week. Mr. Ferguson will conduct services in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, August 23rd. There will be no morning service.

The incoming mail from the east was so large on Monday morning that D. S. Shantz the postmaster had to make three trips to the Post Office with it. The mail for the outlying P.O.'s was so heavy that only part could be taken out.

Miss C. Arnold, Miss M. Young, Miss Dwyer and Messrs. N. Young, W. Wormald of Calgary were visitors with McIlhargy Bros. over Sunday. Mr. Young incidentally paid a visit to the Editor and had a short talk over old times in the printing business in London, Ont., where both worked as devils. Mr. Young is now running an up-to-date printing office in Calgary.

Notice

A rumor has been afloat for some time that Mrs. Maley made a statement to the effect that they had $1,000 in a Bank at Calgary. I, Mrs. Maley, wish to say that such statement is wholly untrue, nothing even bordering on such a subject having escaped my lips and the person who made the affirmation be kind enough to come to me that we may settle the affair.

Mrs. A. F. Maley.

UNION BANK

OF CANADA

Capital, Rest and Undivided Profits Exceed

$5,000,000

With 88 branches from Fort William to Vancouver, the Union Bank of Canada covers the West more thoroughly than does any other Bank.

Every modern Banking facility offered to Farmers, Ranchers, Grain and Cattle Dealers and Merchants.

Collections made. Money transmitted to any part of the world. Savings department established at every Branch. $1 starts an account. Interest at highest current rate paid quarterly.

DIDSBUY BRANCH:
F. N. Ballard, Manager

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

READERS

SCRIBBLERS

TEXT BOOKS

SCHOOL BAGS

EXERCISE BOOKS

And every thing for School Opening.

H. W. CHAMBERS

DRUGGIST AND STATIONER.

Fresh Meats

Chops, Veal Cutlets, Mutton, Pork, Steaks, Fresh Sausage. Orders delivered to any part of Town. We buy HOGS and POULTRY live or dressed, any time, delivered when ordered.

Didsbury Meat Market

N. WEICKER, Prop.

A Large Assortment of FURNITURE

ALWAYS ON HAND TO CHOOSE FROM

Fancy Brass and Iron Beds, Ostermoor Mattresses, Carpets and Shades.

The Eldridge Sewing Machine and New Scale Williams Piano.

EVERYTHING AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICE.

R. Barron DIDSBUY FURNITURE STORE

The Prisoner of Zenda

By ANTHONY HOPE

Copyright, 1891, by Henry Holt & Company

(Continued)

was newcomer must be Black. Michael saw him directly as he advanced toward the window. He caught young Rupert by the arm.

"The moat would hold more than the king," said he, with a significant gesture.

"Does your highness threaten me?" asked Rupert.

"A threat is more warning than most men get from me."

"Yet," observed Rupert, "Rudolf Rassendyll had been much threatened and yet lived."

"I am in fault because my servants bungle?" asked Michael scornfully.

"Your highness has run no risk of bungling," sneered Rupert.

It was telling the duke that he shirked danger as plain as he could have made it out that stuck Michael in self control. I dare say he scowled—it was a great regret to me that I could not see their faces better—but his voice was even and calm as he answered:

"Enough, enough! We mustn't quarrel. Are D'Artagnan and Bertrand at their posts?"

"They are, sir."

"I need you no more."

"Nay, I'm not oppressed with fatigue," said Rupert.

"Pray, sir, leave us," said Michael more impatiently. "In ten minutes the drawbridge will be drawn back, and I presume you have no wish to swim to your bed."

Rupert's figure disappeared. I heard the door open and shut again. Michael and Antoinette de Mauban were left together. To my chagrin, the duke laid his hand on the window and closed it. I heard the sound of his fingers a moment or two. She shook her head, and he turned impatiently away. She left the window. The door sounded again, and Black Michael closed the shutters.

"De Gant, De Gant, man!" sounded from the drawbridge. "Unless you wash a bath before your bed, come along!"

It was Rupert's voice, coming from the end of the drawbridge. A moment later he and De Gant stepped out on the bridge. Rupert's arm was through De Gant's, and in the middle of the bridge he stopped his companion and leaned over. I dropped beside the sled of Jacob's idiosyncrasies.

Then Master Rupert had a little sport. He took from De Gant a bottle which he carried and put it to his lips.

"Hardly a drop!" he cried discontentedly and flung it in the moat.

I felt, as I judged from the sound and the circles on the water, within a yard of the pipe. And Rupert, having got out his revolver, began to shoot at it. The first two shots hit the pipe, and he hit the third. The third shattered the bottle. I hoped that the young ruffian would be content, but he emptied out the other barrels at the pipe, and one, skimming over the pipe, whistled through my hair as I crouched on the gunwale.

"Ware bridge!" a voice cried, to my relief.

Rupert and De Gant cried, "A road!" and ran across. The bridge was drawn back, and all became still. The water was a quiet pool. I stood and stretched my arms and yawned.

I think some ten minutes had passed when I heard a slight noise to my right. I crept over the pipe and saw a dark figure standing in the gateway that led to the castle. It was a man. By his clothes, a criminal, probably a murderer.

"It be Black," I hoped again. He held a sword in his hand, and he stood motionless for a minute or two. Wild thoughts ran through me. On what mischief was the young fiend bent?

He then turned low to his heart, and I heard him say, "There's one for you! Cano-Michæl!"

Johann was there, then—come to the rescue of the duke? How would he open the door for me, for I feared that Rupert had slain him?

"Help!" cried the duke's voice, faint and broken.

I heard a stir on the stairs above me, and I heard a stir down to my right in the direction of the king's cell. But before anything happened on my side of the moat I saw five or six men round young Rupert in the embrasure of madam's window. Three or four between his teeth, turned round and noiselessly let himself down into the water. Had it been a part of my life only I would have sworn to meet life and death in that moment. I leapt to my feet with incomparable dash and dexterity. For an instant they fell back, leaving a ring round him. He leaped on the parapet of the window, laughing as he leaped, and waving his sword in his hand. He was drunk with blood, and, he laughed again wildly as he sang himself headlong into the moat.

What became of him then? I did not see, for as he leaped De Gante's lean face looked out through the door by me, and without a second's hesitation struck at him with his sword. The blow was given low, and he fell dead in the doorway without a word or a groan. I dropped on my knees by him. Where were the keys? I found myself muttering, "The keys, the keys!" though it had been well alive and could listen, and when I said, "I have the keys," he said, "I believe I struck a dead man's face."

At last I had them. There were but three. Seizing the largest, I felt the lock of the door that led to the cell I fitted in the key. It was right. The lock turned. I drew the door close behind me and locked it as noiselessly as possible, putting the key in my pocket.

I found myself at the top of a flight of steep stone stairs. An oil lamp burned dimly in the bracket. I took it down and held it in my hand, and I stood and listened.

"What in the devil can it be?" I asked myself.

It was the sound of a door that had been closed at the bottom of the stairs.

And another answered:

"Shall we kill him?"

I strained to hear the answer and could have sobbed with relief when D'Artagnan's voice came grating and cracked.

"Wait a bit. There'll be trouble if we strike too soon."

There was a moment's silence. Then I heard the bolt of the door cautiously drawn back. Instantly I put out the light held, replacing the lamp in the bracket.

"It's dark—the lamp's out. Have you a light?" said the other voice—Berquin's.

(To be Continued.)

POSTMAN'S LONG SERVICE.

Has Walked Sixteen Times Round the World.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the recipient of the Royal Service

Medal on his well-merited retirement, after thirty-eight years' service, under the Royal Engineers, as a sergeant in Cossack, Salo, and, he has, during that period, walked an equivalent of sixteen times around the world, in going and returning from duty, and during the great part of this time Mr. Williams walked thirty-eight miles per day, as he lay in bed at Bulawayo and had to walk to Cressage to go on duty twice daily. The total amounts to four hundred and

thirteen thousand miles.

The accompanying portrait is that of Mr. Richard Williams, who recently was the

THE discomfort of saw-edged linen is due to the fact that it is a dredger of the method that causes it.

Coldfield Starch does not fray your linen because it is thought to penetrate the fabric and produces sufficient stiffness without the wear of the rubbing required by common cooked starch.

Your grocer has it—or can get it.

Celluloid Starch™

Never Sticks. Requires no Cooking.

The Standard Starch Works, Limited, Montreal, Quebec.

Courage and Patience.

If you imagine that you have a sick coming, just think of Mrs. Bell in Cork, aged 87 years, and consider for a few moments supporting herself all that time. She certainly gives an example of courage and patience that calls for admiration.—New York Herald.

Attacks of cholera and dysentery come quickly, there seldom being any warning of the visit. Remedial action must be taken as quickly as the patient is to be spared great suffering. The disease attacks the lining membranes of the bowels. The readiest preparation for the purpose is Dr. J. D. Kellogg's "Semi-Dry Cereal." It can be had at any good drug store or general dealer, and it will afford relief before a doctor can be called.

"No," explained Mrs. Lapaling, "Johnny says he wasn't bitten by the dog, but I'm not going to take any chances. I shall have him examined just as soon as we get him to the doctors."—New York Times.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to know that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only effective remedy known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, attacking directly the lining and inner surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by which to meet the situation and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for full particulars.

Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Sold by druggists, 75¢. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

"When I started in business," said Mr. Martin Stas, reflectively, "I red soles never to tell an untruth."

"And you kept your word?"

"Yes. Whenever I had any delicate business of that sort hand it over to an expert."—Washington Star.

Minard's Liniment, used by Physicians.

Clarke—When Tom proposed to me he admitted that he had more money than brains.

Miss—Well, I've no reason to doubt it, although he hasn't a dollar to his name.—Chicago News.

Cengane—No, sir; with their spendthrift wives, wives of today are not popular.

Goodfellow—What are they, then? Cynics—Checkmates.—Boston Transcript.

"Is love blind?"

"It ought to be."

"Yes; it has so often had its eyes squinted out after marriage."—Houston Post.

Fine Care Fine Hair

It's fine care that makes fine hair! Use Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, systematically, conscientiously, and you will get results. We know it stops falling hair, cures dandruff, and is a most elegant dressing. Entirely new. New bottle. New contents. Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle Suits it to your doctor

then do as he says

Ayer's
Ayer's Hair Vigor, as now made from our new improved formula, is the latest, most scientific, and in every way the very best hair preparation ever placed upon the market. Forfalling hair and dandruff it is the one great medicine.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

CANADA'S GREAT CELEBRATION.

There are now subscriptions announced to the extent of about $600,000 for the great Tercentenary celebration. One-half and nearly one-half dollars will be forthcoming for it.

From an historical point of view it will be the greatest demonstration this continent has witnessed since a spectacular stampede it will be one of the most dazzling combinations of picturesque events ever seen in any country. There will be thousands of people in the streets of Canada all dressed to the very life. The tableau on the Plains of Abraham, where the historic battle was fought, will emphasize the military and historical events of Canada's romantic history, including Wolfe's work up to his death. The street pageants will be in the various cities, the great demonstration of an impossibility not heretofore realized. Quebec will be filled to repletion by thousands from England and the United States, and the great crowds from Canada, but fully ten millions of people will wish to be present, and cannot find hotel accommodation.

One of the greatest matters of anxiety has been the question how to provide the millions of people who can participate in the celebration with illustrations and descriptions, to give illustrations of grandeur to the world in their entirety.

Announcements have been completed by The Standard, St. Montreal, now recognized as the National Illustrated Paper of Canada, to issue what will be known as "The Standard Tercentenary Number," published by George Bell, the publisher of the Standard.

"It will be the greatest celebration ever held in Canada, and will afford the world a unique opportunity to witness the grandeur of the Tercentenary celebration right into the hearts of those lucky enough to procure a copy."

To connoisseurs The Standard Tercentenary Number is one that expert judgment will consider to be sold under $2.50, and yet it will be practically all the one Tercentenary sovereignty the public can buy.

Orders are being booked, and all orders mailed on or before June 27 will be certain to be filled. After that date, if you can't get it, then change, first come, first served.

Where orders remitted for cannot be filled, remittance will be refunded. The Publishers of The Standard, 151 St. James St., St. Montreal, have gained a continental reputation for the quality and variety of their publications, and in the coming issue to illustrate the Tercentenary Celebration, will certainly be the most interesting and valuable ever published on this continent. We predict that in one month after the celebration it will be in demand at even ten dollars a copy.

They cannot begin to issue enough to meet a demand that will be phenomenal. It is a pleasure to testify to the value of a thing of surpassing merit.—Exchanges.

"We must have parity in politics," exclaimed the speaker earnestly.

"But they wouldn't have any politicians remitted an old campaign—sawing his head disapprovingly.—Philadelphia Ledger."

Come, sample the fruit and make walking a torture, yet save relief in the shade of Holloway's Corn Cure with in reach of all.

Girls Taught Life Saving.

"Gracious!" exclaimed Mrs. Swellman, "the baby has eaten a lot of that dog biscuit."

"Never mind, dear," replied Mrs. Swellman, "it's no service. Fine right for her to eat the baby's food many a time. Yes, Edie, naughty! naughty!"—Philadelphia Press.

"Johnny, why don't you be a good boy like your brother Willy?" the mother was sternly admonishing her naughty son. "Willy's home may be Prosser's, but you're home, and why will you go to dig in the sewer?"

"But, mother," wailed Willy, "can't I dig in the sewer sometimes, too?"—Harper's Weekly.

Lord's Ebbing Strength.

Last year was a year of retrogression in the record of Irish emigration. The number of emigrants had steadily fallen from 1902 to 1903, in which year it reached the lowest point recorded since 1851. But for the last two years there has been an increase, and the figure for 1907 is the highest since 1902 and is considerably higher than the figures of 1897 and 1898.—Freeman's Journal.

Meals and Brains.

We give too much thought to our meals, for instance. They need conning, and it is pleasant to have them not temptingly upon a table on which fresh flowers are arranged and to eat them in the quiet of a room. It is a species of dust, but it is not right that our bodies should be fed at the expense of our souls or that the dust should be taken from every ledge in our house and left to gather thickly in our brains.—Reader Magazine.

Frank About It.

Shee-Sheen-Sheen—What size would you like, madam? Miss Lillian—'I'd like a No. 2, but there's no use talking about that. You may as well show me your No. 5—Lon-Ton-Ton.

—Ayer's Magazine.

IT'S A MISTAKE TO BE BALD.

Thousands of men and women who were bald or whose hair was falling out, testify to wonderful results from the use of the "Silent Hair Growth" and Scalp Cleanser. Sample sent free. Send 2c to pay postage to Seven Brothers, 197 King St., St. John, N. B.

Sample, Price, Hair Growth, 25c.

LADIES SKIRTS

We have just secured a large assortment of samples and are selling them

AT FIRST COST

They are a fine lot, and the ones that are lucky to get them will get a bargain.

HURRY UP, THEY WON'T LAST LONG.

STUDER & CO.

W. G. Liesemer

Headquarters for

Shelf and Heavy Hardware, Stoves, Tinware, Furnaces, Wall Papers, Sherwin-Williams Paints, Deering Machinery, John Deere Implements

Job Work a Specialty

Call in and see our National Canada Stoves

THE
J. G. C. SULKY

(James G. Cockshutt)

will plow

in brush

as high as the Horses.

H. B. ATKINS

DIDSBURY

The Didsbury Pioneer

PUBLISHED AT DIDSBURY, ALTA.

SUBSCRIPTION: One Dollar per year in advance. All arrangements of six months or more will be at the rate of $1.50 per year.

Advertising Rates quoted on application.

H. E. OSMOND, EDITOR.

Tax Rate 18 Mills

The Council met in regular session on Monday night in the Council chamber. Mayor, Mr. Smith, and Councillors Atkins, Smith, Shantz, Liesemer and Bercht, and Solicitor Macleod and Secretary Eby being present.

Chairman Liesemer of the Finance Committee presented a report of the town's financial standing showing a balance of $1,115.69 and Liabilities $5,722.00.

The Council then took up the question of the tax rate for this year, but as the School Board had neglected to send in their estimate for the year the Council had to wait until it was presented. After a discussion as to ways and means of keeping down the tax rate was discussed, but it was finally decided that they could not get along with less than last year which was 18 mills, divided as follows: 10 mills for the School Board and 8 mills for town purposes. The bylaw placing the tax rate at 18 mills was then given a third reading.

A petition was received from a large number of taxpayers praying the Council to pass a bylaw regulating the time when children under 12 years of age can be left on the streets at night within the town limits without proper guardianship, and further providing for a curfew bell and providing for penalties for children and guardians infringing said bylaw.

A heated discussion took place on this petition, and some of the Councilors as to the need of enforcing the bylaw if once passed as the town now has no constable. It was finally decided on motion that the Solicitor be asked to draw up a bylaw to prevent children from running on streets after certain hours at night.

The provincial Health department wrote requesting the Council to appoint a Board of Health for the town. This Board has to be composed of ratepayers outside the Council as well as Councillors. This was also left in the hands of the Solicitor to draw up a bylaw.

The Fire Water and Light Committee presented a report and also a letter from the Canadian Fairbanks Co. re waterworks system. The letter stated that the system was in good condition with a 500 gallon tank on a 10 foot tower with a 15 horse power Fairbanks-Morse engine and a 37-70 deep well cylinder together with necessary wooden pipe, valves, hydrants, crosses, and cast iron fittings. $10,000.00 is to be disbursed. This is for the purchase of a small amount of putting up the tower and tank but not supplying a foundation. The town would have to supply a proper pump house and do all necessary excavating and lay all mains. These calculations are based on drilling a well 150 feet deep.

The Committee also recommended that the Council bring representatives of the Canadian Fairbanks Co. and the J. L. White Co., who control the compressed air system, here at once to look over the system.

The Council adopted the report and will also ask the Goodwin-Shapley and Muir Co. Bradford, to send a representative to meet the council.

The clerk was instructed to write to Yorkton, Sask. to see if the compressed air system is satisfactory. The Council then adjourned.

Successful Scholars

Those who are interested in school matters will learn with pleasure that all the pupils who qualified at the DidSBury Public school passed at the recent Departmental examinations. Following are the names of the pupils who entered for these examinations: Standard VIII—Wesley Swain.

Standard VI—Levi Kupp.

Standard V—Loren Good, Eva Sex, with, Lily Kupp.

August time, tells on the nerves. But that spirtless, no ambition feeling can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known as the "druggist's" remedy. Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative improvement will be noticed. Of course, full health will not immediately return. The gain, however, will cause full health to return when you realize and feel your strength and ambition as it is returning. Outside influences depress first the "motor nerves" then the stomach. That is, the kidneys, liver, lungs, etc. Strengthen these failing nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly health will be yours again. Sold by H. W. Chambers, Didsbury.

ALBERTA SHORTHAND SCHOOL

TaY A FOUR MONTHS COURSE at the "Alberta Shorthand and Typewriting School," 51st & McDougall Block, Calgary, and see the results. Terms unusually reasonable. Fall term opens August 31st. Positions secured for students.

T. H. GRANTHAM.

THE WELL THAT NEVER DRIES

THE
Pittsburg Perfect Fence

Shelf and Heavy Hardware

Come in and see our Special line of Fire Clay Cooking Utensils

All kinds of repairing neatly and promptly executed

W. H. SMITH & CO.

SEE OUR NEW SET OF
Didsbury Postcards
... in Colors . .

NICE TO SEND AWAY
IS CENTS FOR SET.

FRUITS ARRIVING DAILY
PRICES RIGHT GOODS THE BEST

See our Specials Each Week.

WILLIAMS

Fruit and Confectionery.

Sinclair & Connan
General Blacksmiths
and Machinists.

Horseshoeing, Bright Tools, Disc Sharpening, Tin and Tinware Repairs, Steam Turning, Valve Repairing, Steam Fitting, Woodworking and General Repairs.

Nothing too small and nothing too large.

CALL AT THE

NORTH END SHOP,

Two doors north of Bailey's store.

PUBLIC NOTICE
The Supreme Court of Alberta.

Notice is hereby given that an examination will be held by F. W. Holson, a duly appointed Inspector of steam boilers for the province of Alberta at:

Red Deer, Aug. 29th; Innisfail, Aug. 31st, Olds, Sept. 1st; Didsbury, Sept. 2nd, Lethbridge, Sept. 3rd; Stettler, Sept. 7th, Ponoka, Sept. 9th; Hardisty Sept. 11th, Killam, Sept. 12th; Drayton Valley Sept. 14th, and Wetaskiwin Sept. 16th at 10 a.m. for the purpose of qualifying for certificates under the provisions of the Small Boilers Act 1903.

Application for examination should be made to the above named Inspector or to JOHN STOKES,

Department of Public Works, Edmonton, Alta.

EDMONTON, Oct. 6th, 1903 and March 2nd, 1904.

Calgary—Dec. 1st, 1903 and June 1st, 1904.

Red Deer—Sept. 27th, 1903, and April 2nd, 1904.

Edmonton—Oct. 27th, 1903, February 2nd and May 4th, 1904.

Wetaskiwin—November 17th, 1903, and April 12th, 1904.

Medicine Hat—Sept. 27th, 1903, and April 2nd, 1904.

Lethbridge—October 27th, 1903 and April 27th, 1904.

Macleod—November 17th, 1903 and April 6th, 1904.

Dated at Edmonton this seventh day of August, A.D. 1903.

S. B. WOODS,

Deputy Attorney General.

A Reliable Local Salesman
Wanted

for Didsbury, Alta., and adjoining country to represent CANADA'S OLDEST AND GREATEST NURSERIES. We are in close touch with the experimental stations at Indian Head and Brandon. As a consequence, we are well up in varieties which are best adapted for western growing. Our stock has done remarkably well all through the west.

Send for our WESTERN CIRCULAR with testimonials from men who are fruiting our stock.

The right man gets permanent situation. Liberal inducements. Free specially designed outfit for Western Agents. Write for particulars.

STONE & WELLINGTON,
Foothill Nurseries, (850 acres.)

Toronto, Ontario.

Gilmore & Baker

Makes a Specialty of BUNS for
AUCTION
SALES.

Railway St., Didsbury
Telephone No. 27

HIGHEST CASH PRICE

Paid for Poultry, Fresh Pork, Veal
and Hides.

CITY MEAT MARKET
L. WILSON, Prop.

